Project „Sustainability know-how for SMEs in rural tourism strengthening the link between adult learning and working life in rural SME sector”.

Fifth partner meeting minutes

Riga, Lauku Celotajs office

27.05.2020.

Participants:

Asnāte Ziemele, LCTA Lauku Celotajs

Rūta Rulle, LCTA Lauku Celotajs

Jan Tjosaas, HANEN, Norwegian Rural tourism and local food

Marika Šadeiko, Olustvere, Service and Rural Economy Vocational School

Tiina Ardel, Olustvere, Service and Rural Economy Vocational School

Lagle Vilu, Olustvere, Service and Rural Economy Vocational School

Estonian handbook version and check list is ready. The handbook is made for tourism students. Next week also the training course will be ready and students will use it and answer questions after each chapter in it. Olustvere will send an e-mail to students about this course and will make a post on Facebook as well. They will also send information to Estonian Rural Tourism organization.

Olustvere will send some feedback from students about this new training course.

Latvian and Norwegian handbooks, check-lists and training courses on Moodle are ready to use.

Need to mention in the final report that all partners used already existing check-lists but adapted them to the needs of this project.

Need to publish all project partner results on website

<https://www.celotajs.lv/en/project/18>.

Partners will send all their dissemination activities for the final report.

Ideas for next project – local food distribution, marketing for online selling.
